

BOOKING FORM FOR FOWEY MARINE ADVENTURES

Please print and fill in this form to book a Voyage.

For a booking quotation you will need to inform us of how many of you there are in your group, when you wish to sail (date and proposed time) and the type of Voyage in which you are interested. The price varies according to season and group numbers but we always give our customers the best deal we can.

1. Contact us: Firstly please telephone us or call in at the booking office to check availability or whether or not you can be included on a scheduled Voyage. Our office phone number is 01726 832300 and the booking office is situated at 35 Fore Street in the central shopping area of Fowey. Alternatively contact us by mobile phone on 07792 353 638.

2. Written confirmation: We then require written confirmation of the booking from the leader of the group, preferably using this form:

4. Collection of tickets: Any time during your stay in Cornwall or at the latest one hour before departure we will require the leader of the group to attend our office to collect the boarding passes.

5. Boarding: The vessel needs to leave on time and if you are late your ticket will be void. When the vessel comes into berth the crew will call you onto the slip and assist you with embarkation. Please ensure that you only board the vessel as named on the front of the ticket. If you have any doubts, check with the crew and/or boarding master.

Please note: The sea is a dangerous and ever changing environment and all adventurous activities carry certain risks that cannot be ignored. We do not, therefore, accept responsibility for incidents occurring outside our control.

- You must inform the skipper or crew of any difficulties or disabilities that you may have.
- Your personal possessions are carried entirely at your own risk
- You must not board whilst intoxicated in any form
- You are responsible for your conduct and for your children and pets
- You are advised to bring suitable clothing
